After a few months, Vinoth switched to my class. Then, Prici, Kalps, and Vinoth started getting a bit closer to me, as they all live in my neighborhood. I spend most of my time on phone calls with Prici and Kalps. When Appa got a fever, I missed a class. Prici called to check on me, and later, Kalps and Pradee came over to my house. On October 19, 2012, Sanjay gave me a Dairy Milk chocolate. Even though Kalps had given me a lollipop, I felt bad for not thanking Sanjay.
